

CUSTOMIZABLE BEAUTY

Advanced Beauty Solutions with CosmoPod™ technology Innovative, Flexible Unit-Dose Capsules

One of the top growing trends in the beauty industry is personalization. According to the Institute of Personal Care Science,

'Consumers will be demanding customized product ranges, based on individual preferences. Companies will need to start the customizable process from the outset by considering novel formulations that combine personalizable bases with optional actives.'

USE COSMOPOD™ UNIT-DOSE CAPSULES TO CUSTOMIZE YOUR BEAUTY ROUTINE

"UPGRADE" EXISTING PRODUCTS

Just before you apply your standard treatment, twist-off and squeeze the CosmoPod™ unit-dose contents onto your palm. Mix it with your regular product and apply this blend onto the skin.

"COMPLEMENT" CURRENT ROUTE

Use CosmoPod™ twist-off capsules as the first product applied to your skin, after your daily cleansing routine and right before any other treatment.

Customization Options

Catalent's CosmoPod™ unit-dose twist off capsules offer ready-to-go personalized, flexible beauty treatments in an elegant, easy to use, convenient delivery form perfect for today's busy lifestyles.

- Add highly concentrated products as a "booster" to your normal treatment, right before application to the skin. Create a more effective customized formula for targeted treatments or to address specific seasonal skin care needs
- Perfect an existing beauty regimen with a selection from Catalent's diversified portfolio of ready to market products to transform a standard regime into a specialized advanced skin care experience

Benefits
